

How to Start Blogging

Blogging is the Most Common Method on Internet With High Competition to Make Money. Anyone Can Create a Blog. You Can Either Create A Blog on Blogger or on WordPress. For a Blog you Need a Domain and a Hosting. On Blogger, hosting is free. If you are Creating a Blog on WordPress then you need to Buy Hosting from BigRock , Hostgator, Godaddy or Bluehost. WordPress plugins makes your work easier.

Step 1. Identify your interest the very first thing you will have to find is your knowledge, passion, interest or enthusiasm about any topic.

Ask yourself these questions:

- Can I write about my topic without getting bored?
- Do I have enough passion about my topic?
- Do I have enough knowledge about my topic?
- Where I want to see 5 years down the line?
- Will my blog's tone be powerful enough to captivate my audience?
- Is there any audience for my topic?
- Can I write for 6 months without worrying about income from my blog?
- Am I ready to learn too many new things?
- Once you have crisp and clear answers to these questions, you are good to go.

Step 2. Domain Name For Your Blog

A domain name is the name of your website. e.g Google.com, Yahoo.com, MSN.com, WikiPedia.com or any name of a website are called domain names. So once you have decided your topic for the blogging, the very next thing is a domain name. Companies like GoDaddy, NameCheap, BigRock are one of the top domain provider companies in the world. So you'll have to open any of the websites listed above to find the perfect domain name for your business. I searched for the domains name MyBestOnlineBusiness.com, and luckily it was available.

After finding a suitable domain name for your business, you can proceed with the registration process on the site and make the payment via your Debit/Credit card.

Few things to keep in mind before buying domain names:

- Try Short Name
- Never Buy Digits In Domain Name
- Always Prefer Dot Com
- Try To Avoid Adjacent Double/Triple Letters
- Find A Domain Related To Your Industry Only

Step 3. Hosting For Your Blog

A hosting is an online server which helps you to store your data. So your domain name will be the name of your website, and all the data of that website will be stored on the server (called as hosting). As the data is a very crucial thing for your blog so you must select the hosting company very carefully. I personally recommend GoDaddy hosting.

Buy GoDaddy Hosting plan from this URL to get free domain & instant discount on first time purchase:

<http://www.tkqlhce.com/click-8479977-10864024>

Things to keep in mind before buying hosting

- Space
- Unlimited Domain Names
- Support
- Bandwidth
- Easiness To Manage

Step 4. Content Management System

This is the system which will help you to add the content on your blog

I am using WordPress for this blog which is one of the top content management systems in the world having over 60 million websites in the world running on it.

This is as simple as working with Microsoft Word.

They have given awesome visual editor which you can use to do various activities like bold, italic, underline, hyperlink, color, font, font size etc.

Step 5. Grab All Social Media Identities

All big companies have integrated social media into their business. They are launching their products exclusively on social media sites and interacting with their customers directly. So the very first task after buying a domain, hosting and setting WordPress is grabbing all your social media identities.

You can check the availability of your business by going to namecheckr.com.

Step 6. Find a Perfect Theme

WordPress has hell lots of themes. You can pick the theme as per your blog's category and install it easily.

Few things to keep in mind before buying WordPress theme:

- Make sure that you are buying unlimited sites license.
- The theme must be easy to manage.
- The theme must be compatible with the latest version of WordPress.
- The theme must be responsive (capable of changing layout on a mobile device).
- Theme must suit your blog's category.

Step 7. Start Writing

Start writing from today itself. Your blog is nothing without you. All you'll have to do to make it a blog is start writing today. No matter how well you are in English, no matter how much knowledge do you have about your subject, and no matter how you feel about your writing, your blog will grow only and only when you'll start writing. With time you'll start getting writing ideas, and your readers will start enjoying/reading what you say. But the first thing is WRITING. Take help from your friends, read more about your subject, pay attention to the newspaper and start collecting the fresh ideas about your subject.

For More Information Visit <http://mytechelite.com/>